§ 530.305 Revising or discontinuing special salary rate schedules.

OPM and agencies shall initiate action to discontinue or revise special salary rate schedules when it is determined that these schedules are no longer needed, or no longer needed at existing levels, to ensure satisfactory recruitment or retention. No employee's pay shall be reduced because of such discontinuation or revision.

§ 530.306 Determining employee rates.

(a) Initial establishment and increases.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, when an employee is in a position to which a special rate schedule becomes initially applicable or for which the special salary rate schedule is increased, the agency shall fix the employee's rate of basic pay at the step in the new or increased special salary rate schedule that corresponds to the employee's existing numerical step or rate of the grade or level.

(2) When a special salary rate schedule becomes initially applicable to, or increased for, a position occupied by an employee who is receiving basic pay at a rate in excess of the maximum rate of the applicable rate schedule, the agency shall increase the employee's rate of basic pay as follows:

(i) If the employee is retaining a rate under part 536 of this chapter or section 3594 of title 5, United States Code, the agency shall increase the employee's rate of basic pay by an amount equal to 50 percent of the increase in the maximum rate of the applicable rate range, except as provided in § 536.205(d).

(ii) If the employee is retaining a rate under an authority other than part 536 of this chapter (including a retained special rate resulting from the reduction or termination of a special salary rate schedule before the first day of the first pay period beginning on or after January 11, 1979), or section 3594 of title 5, United States Code, the agency shall increase the employee's rate of basic pay by the amount of the increase in the maximum rate of the applicable rate range.

(3) When a special salary rate schedule becomes initially applicable to, or increased for, a position occupied by a GM employee (as defined in § 531.202 of this chapter), the employee's rate of basic pay shall be determined under § 531.205(a)(2) of this chapter.

(b) Decreased and discontinued rates.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, when the special salary rate schedule for a position is discontinued or decreased, the agency shall determine the rate of basic pay for an employee in the position as follows:

(i) If the employee is receiving a rate of basic pay equal to one of the rates in the regular or decreased special salary rate schedule for the employee's grade or level, the agency shall fix the employee's rate of basic pay at that rate.

(ii) If the employee is receiving a rate of basic pay at a rate between two rates in the regular or decreased special salary rate schedule for the employee's grade or level, the agency shall fix the employee's rate of basic pay at the higher of the two rates.

(iii) If the employee is receiving a rate of basic pay at a rate in excess of the maximum rate for the regular or decreased special salary rate schedule for the employee's grade or level, the agency shall fix the employee's rate of basic pay at his or her existing rate, and the employee shall be entitled to this rate as provided in § 536.104(a)(3).

(2) If the employee is receiving a rate of basic pay applicable to a GM employee (as defined in § 531.202 of this chapter), the employee shall receive his or her existing rate. This rate may be lower than the minimum rate for the regular schedule, as permitted by section 4 of the Performance Management and Recognition System Termination Act of 1993 (Pub. L. 103-89). If the employee's existing rate exceeds the maximum rate for the regular or decreased special salary rate schedule, the employee shall be entitled to the existing rate, as provided in § 536.104(a)(3) of this chapter.

(c) Initial appointments. (1) The agency shall determine the rate of basic pay for an individual receiving an initial appointment (including an appointment after a break in service of at least 1 workday) to a position to which a special salary rate schedule applies under the regulations governing the pay system under which the employee is appointed without regard to the special salary rate schedule, and shall use the step or rate thus determined to fix the employee's rate at the corresponding step or rate in the special salary rate schedule.

§ 530.307

5 CFR Ch. I (1–1–03 Edition)

(2) A special salary rate may not be considered an employee's highest previous rate, except as provided in § 531.203(d)(2)(vi).

(d) General exception. Except as provided in paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) of this section, all other actions of promotion, reduction in grade, transfer, or reassignment are governed by the pay-fixing rules established for the appropriate pay system to which, or in which, the personnel action is taken.

(e) Reassignments and transfers. When an employee is reassigned or transferred within the same pay system to a position to which a special salary rate schedule applies, the agency shall fix the employee's rate in the special salary rate schedule at the step or rate in the special salary rate schedule for the employee's grade or level which corresponds to the employee's existing numerical step or rate in the salary rate schedule for the employee's grade or level.

(f) Promotions. When an employee in a position to which a special salary rate schedule does not apply is promoted to a position to which a special salary rate schedule applies, the agency shall first determine the employee's step or rate in the higher grade or level without regard to the special salary rate schedule, and then shall fix the employee's rate at the corresponding numerical step or rate in the special salary rate schedule for the grade to which promoted.

(g) Reductions in grade. When an employee not entitled to a retained grade or rate under appropriate authority is reduced in grade to a position to which a special salary rate schedule applies, the agency shall first determine the employee's step or rate in the lower grade without regard to the special salary rate schedule, and then shall fix the employee's rate at the corresponding numerical step or rate in the special salary rate schedule for the grade to which reduced.

§ 530.307 Effect of an adjustment in scheduled rates of pay.

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, when an employee was receiving a special rate immediately before the effective date of an adjustment in scheduled rates of pay, the employee shall receive on that effective date the rate of basic pay for the numerical rank in the new special rate range established under § 530.304 of this part for the employee's grade or level that corresponds to the numerical rank of the special rate the employee was receiving immediately before that effective date. However, in the case of an employee who becomes eligible for pay retention because a special rate schedule has been reduced under § 530.304 of this part, the employee shall receive a rate of basic pay determined under § 536.205(b) of this chapter.

(b) If a special rate range is terminated under § 530.304 of this part, an employee who was receiving a special rate immediately before the effective date of an adjustment in scheduled rates of pay shall receive on that effective date the numerical rank in the new statutory pay schedule for the employee's grade or level that corresponds to the numerical rank of the special rate the employee was receiving immediately before that effective date. However, in the case of an employee who becomes eligible for pay retention because the employee's pay would otherwise be reduced under § 530.304 of this part, the employee shall receive a rate of basic pay determined under § 536.205(b) of this chapter.

(c) A GM employee (as defined in § 531.202 of this chapter) receiving a special salary rate immediately before the effective date of an adjustment in scheduled rates of pay shall receive on that effective date a rate of basic pay determined under § 531.205(a)(2) of this
